

Saskatchewan Spine Pathway Presents

ASSESSMENT AND MANAGEMENT OF LOWER BACK AND LEG PAIN

Friday April 20, 2018 1:00-5:00 p.m.

Saskatoon City Hospital, Asher Auditorium

Presenters:

Dr. Daryl Fourney, MD, FRCSC, FACS

Professor, Division of Neurosurgery, University of Saskatchewan

John Berzolla, BScPT, BScAnat

John Murphy, BScPT, BScAnat

This course is being held the day before the Orthopedic Conference hosted by Continuing Medical Education, U of S College of Medicine. Click here for more information.

The Assessment and Management of Lower Back and Leg Pain course is intended for primary care providers including physicians, physiotherapists, chiropractors and nurses. It is designed to build on providers' knowledge and skills when treating patients with low back and leg pain.

There is no charge for this course.

This Group Learning program has been certified by the College of Family Physicians of Canada for up to 8 Mainpro+ credits.

Register by April 15, 2018 at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/5KK8N52>

Seating is limited; please register early to secure your place.

Questions? Please contact SpineTraining@health.gov.sk.ca

